Kyra Louise Holmes is a film/ theatre actor and performer. She has previously focused her autobiographical work on the influence of social media on body image and mental health. It has been inspired by personal experiences throughout her life alongside the inspiration of others self-growth and success. With experience in theatre within R'Marnies Drama School, a BA(Hons) degree in Drama, Applied Theatre and Performance and debuting in her first short film 'We Will Not Be Silenced' within the National Youth Film Academy, Kyra's ambition for acting grows stronger each and every day. She takes pride in the work she is a part of and tries her best to be a helping hand on set for her fellow teammates. She has skills in swimming, netball and skiing, her other interests are streetwear, urban practices and travelling.
